

Salamander Theatre for Young Audiences

2009-2010 DRAMA-IN-EDUCATION SCHOOL WORKSHOPS & RESIDENCIES

Our workshops are about having FUN, developing CONFIDENCE, and unlocking CREATIVITY. Salamander Theatre not only provides workshops for students; we also offer professional development for teachers. Ask us how we can tailor any workshop to your needs.

DRAMA READINESS

Learn the basics of group participation using songs, movement games, tableaux, role-playing and character voice. Gr. K - 3

TIME TRAVEL

Become navigators, pioneers, canal builders and dramatize the dreams and struggles of the people who built this country. Gr. 3 - 8

PLAY-MAKING

Discover tableaux, role playing, movement and structure. Learn the theatrical techniques to build a play worth watching every time! Gr. 3 - 12

SHADOW PLAY

Build the essentials of shadow box theatre using found materials, light and shadow. Create a short play blending visual arts with drama. Gr. 3 - 12

CALLING THE SHOTS

Get behind the camera for a crash course in moviemaking! Learn to tell a story using the language of video. This is a director's cut. Gr. 5 - 12

HERO TALK

Explore heroic drama and classic tragic structure. Mix in some current events, modern values, and students' own experiences for a dynamite combination! Gr. 5 - 12

SPEAKING SHAKESPEARE

Learn Shakespeare Theatre by decoding its language and performing Elizabethan acts. Students will relish the Bard's blank verse. Gr. 7 - 12

For more information on Salamander's residencies and drama-in-education workshops, please call Wendy Hartley at MASC at (613) 725-9119, or visit the Salamander website at: www.salamandertheatre.ca

Salamander Theatre for Young Audiences, Arts Court, 2 Daly Avenue, Ottawa, Ontario K1N 6E2 - (613) 569-5629

